

Erawan & Hell Fire Pass Memorable Tour / TTH 007

With its natural beauty, Erawan ranks the first top of Kanchanaburi waterfalls and has drawn thousands of visitors each year. This full-day trip is excellent for those who want to have a relaxed short break in the peaceful and natural surroundings closed to the town. The great combination of history and nature explore includes a visit to Hellfire Pass Memorial.

Itinerary

- 0830 Depart Hotel in Kanchanaburi by A/C Van.
0930 Then continue a journey to Erawan National Park. Start a trekking trip along the nature trail up to the waterfall with its splendid surrounding. Glimpses of wild Monkeys and birds, appreciate the patterns and shapes of the tropical forest with its various formations, particularly the stunning big trees believed to be protected by female spirit. Then enjoy relaxing and swimming in its emerald- colored pools.
1200 Thai lunch at a local restaurant, after lunch continue to Hellfire Pass Memorial.
1330 Reach the memorial located in the scenic River Kwai valley. Visit the Memorial's well presented museum, then start an unforgettable walk (a fairly easy walk of 4 kms, or 2.30 hours approx.) on an uneven railway track running through the splendid bamboo dominant forests. Several historical places, still hidden from most routine tourists, will be amazingly discovered. Coffee/tea and snacks will be served privately at a rest area overlooking the scenic view of the River Kwai valley.
