

Elephant Day and Nature Care / Day Tour / TTH118 (Nature Trek- Elephant Riding - Bamboo Rafting-Train Ride)

Jungle trekking in the protected forest which is home to Asian elephants adds to excitement and enhances your appreciation towards the whole ecosystem of nature. During the walking trip, learn from the accompanying experienced ranger how important elephants are for the forest ecosystem and challenges facing them and their conservation in the wild. Thereafter, have a good fun with elephant ride and bamboo rafting along the mighty River Kwai. Fulfill your trip by a spiritual train journey on the famous Death Railway running in parallel with the dramatic river that provides the impressive view of the River Kwai stretch.

Itinerary

- 0900 Pick up from hotels in Kanchanaburi town and proceed to the wildlife sanctuary (45 minute drive). En route enjoy the picturesque scenery along the River Kwai with its magnificent limestone mountains backdrop.
- 1000 Upon arrival, start a nature walk into the bamboo forest (about 3 kms. walk). Learn about the forests or 'habitats' they live and feed on to survive seasonally, vegetations they eat in the wild and other supplementary food such as mineral licks and also their behaviors related to seasonal and climate changes. The walking route is relatively easy, suitable for people of all ranges of fitness and ages, except that some part of the route may be fairly stony. It cuts across a natural stream running through the tropical seasonal forest dominated by bamboo, preferred by elephants as their main diet, along with other plants and trees.
- 1230 Enjoy Thai lunch at local restaurant nearby (subject to change where appropriate).
- 1315 After Lunch, continue to the elephant camp by the River Kwai.
- 1415 Be excited with soft adventures on the elephant back and then bamboo rafting.
- 1540 Enjoy a train journey from Wang Poh to Tha Kilaen stations along the historical Death Railway running in parallel with the well known River Kwai.
- 1640 Arrive Tha Kilaen station, pick up and proceed to Kanchanaburi town.
- 1730 Upon arrival, transfer to the accommodation in KAN.
